JOINT FINAL PRE-TRIAL ORDER

At a session of said Court held in the U.S. District Courthouse, City of Detroit,
State of Michigan, County of Wayne on: September 28, 2006

PRESENT: ANNA DIGGS TAYLOR
U.S. District Court Judge

(1) Jurisdiction

Diversity Jurisdiction pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1332 is appropriate and is not contested by Defendants.

(2) Plaintiff's Claims

Plaintiff has brought an assault and battery action against Defendants.

JERMAINE O'NEAL

Defendant Jermaine O'Neal committed an intentional battery on Plaintiff Charlie Haddad.

ANTHONY JOHNSON

Anthony Johnson committed an assault and battery on Plaintiff Charlie Haddad.

INDIANA PACERS

Jermaine O'Neal and Anthony Johnson were employees of Defendant Indiana Pacers at the time of their assault and battery on the Plaintiff Charlie Haddad.

(3) Defendants' Claims

- a) Defendants will argue that neither Jermaine O'Neal nor Anthony Johnson assaulted or battered Plaintiff Charlie Haddad in the manner that has been alleged by Plaintiff.
- b) Defendants will argue that any number of circumstances should reduce or bar Plaintiff's recovery under the doctrines of comparative fault and/or assumption of risk, including Plaintiff's trespass or otherwise wrongful entry onto the basketball court, his level of intoxication and his confrontation and assault of the individual Defendants and/or their teammates.
- c) Defendants will argue that any actions taken by Jermaine O'Neal and/or Anthony Johnson were in self-defense and/or in the defense of others.
- d) Defendants will argue that pursuant to MCL 600.2955a, Plaintiff's claims are barred, or an award of damages must be reduced, because Plaintiff had an impaired ability to function due to the influence of intoxicating liquor, and as a result of that impaired ability, Plaintiff was 50% or more the cause of the event that resulted in his injuries, if any.

- e) Defendants will argue that Plaintiff's purchasing of a ticket precludes his assertion of tort claims against Jermaine O'Neal and/or Anthony Johnson because of the terms of use of that ticket.
- f) Defendants will argue that any actions taken by Jermaine O'Neal and/or Anthony Johnson did not result in any damages to Plaintiff and that Plaintiff cannot establish a right to any compensation for damages allegedly caused by Defendants.

(4) Stipulated Facts

- a) That Plaintiff was in attendance at the basketball game of the Detroit Pistons versus the Indiana Pacers on November 19, 2004, at the Palace of Auburn Hills.
- b) That Defendants Jermaine O'Neal and Anthony Johnson were employees of the Pacers Basketball Corporation on November 19, 2004.
- c) That late in the fourth quarter of the game, a referee called a foul on Detroit Piston player Ben Wallace while he was defending against Indiana Pacer player Ron Artest.
- d) That shortly after the fourth quarter foul call, a fan threw a cup of liquid towards the basketball court that struck Indiana Pacer player Ron Artest and a disturbance broke out in the stands.
- e) That after the game was over Plaintiff, as well as other people, walked onto the basketball court during the disturbance.
- f) That while Plaintiff was on the basketball court, he was involved in an altercation with Defendant Anthony Johnson and then with Defendant Jermaine O'Neal.
- g) That Jermaine O'Neal struck Plaintiff in the face.
- h) That Plaintiff and Defendants were escorted off of the basketball court; the Plaintiff being taken to the Palace of Auburn Hills Security Office and the players being taken out of the palace to the team bus.
- i) That Plaintiff was taken to Pontiac Osteopathic Hospital after the incident. Medical records from Pontiac Osteopathic Hospital contain the following impressions of the doctors who treated Plaintiff:
  - 1. Status post assault with closed head injury and abdominal contusion;
  - 2. Head contusion;

3. Face contusion; and
4. Neck strain..

- j) The events relevant to the incident were visually recorded as they were occurring.
- k) That Plaintiff is employed at Good Times Market, a family owned convenience store.

(5) Issues of Fact To Be Litigated

- a) Whether the actions of Defendants Jermaine O'Neal and Anthony Johnson that were directed at Plaintiff were in defense of themselves or others.
- b) What was Plaintiff's level of intoxication on November 19, 2004, and whether Plaintiff's intoxication was 50% or more the cause of the event that resulted in his injuries, if any.
- c) Whether Plaintiff's comparative fault and/or assumption of risk reduces or bar his recovery in whole or in part.
- d) Damages

(6) Issues of Law To Be Litigated

- a) Whether the actions of Defendant Jermaine O'Neal and Anthony Johnson that were directed at Plaintiff were in self defense or in the defense of others.
- b) Whether Plaintiff's intentional trespass or otherwise wrongful entry onto the basketball court bars or reduces his recovery in whole or in part.
- c) Whether Plaintiff's comparative fault and/or assumption of risk reduces or bar his recovery in whole or in part.
- d) Whether Plaintiff had an impaired ability to function due to the influence of intoxicating liquor, and as a result of that impaired ability, whether Plaintiff was 50% or more the cause of the event that resulted in his injuries.
- e) Whether Plaintiff's purchasing of a ticket precludes his assertion of tort claims because of his assumption of risk, waiver and/or release of his claims against Defendants.
- f) Whether Plaintiff has taken sufficient efforts to mitigate his alleged damages.

- g) Whether Plaintiff has demonstrated a causal link between the actions of Jermaine O'Neal and/or Anthony Johnson and his alleged damages.
- h) Whether Plaintiff has established that he has suffered any actual damages.
- i) Whether the conduct of Jermaine O'Neal amounted to a willful, wanton and malicious act so as to allow a claim for exemplary damages under Michigan law.
- j) Did the alleged battery committed by Jermaine O'Neal on Charlie Haddad constitute a willful, wanton and malicious act, so as to allow a claim for exemplary damages?

(7) Evidence Problems Likely to Arise at Trial

- a) Whether the video depositions of Jermaine O'Neal and/or Anthony Johnson, including portions of their depositions taken in connection with three separate state court actions and unresolved objections by counsel, are admissible in this proceeding.
- b) Whether the party admissions in the hearing transcript in the Matter of Arbitration Between National Basketball Players Association, Ron Artest, Stephen Jackson, Anthony Johnson and Jermaine O'Neal and National Basketball Association may be used for cross examination in this proceeding.
- c) Whether the Opinion and Award of Arbitrator Roger P. Kaplan, Esquire in the Matter of Arbitration Between National Basketball Players Association and National Basketball Association, Case No. 04-3 is admissible in this proceeding.
- d) Whether the opinions of Defendants' and Plaintiff's experts are admissible under the Federal Rules of Evidence.
- e) Defendants may object to the admission of certain portions of the videotape depicting events occurring on November 19, 2004 that are not relevant to the issues in dispute in this case. (Custodian objections as to the video, as well as other records, business and medical records are waived).

(10) Damages

Plaintiff's actual damages include physical and emotional pain and suffering for the effects of his head injury, lost earning capacity, and out of pocket expenses. Plaintiff also seeks exemplary damages.

Defendant denies any damages.

(11) Trial

A. Jury Trial

B. Plaintiff's proofs will take 3 – 4 days. Defendants estimate the trial will take 3 weeks to complete.

(12) Settlement

Counsel for Defendant Indiana Pacers and counsel for Plaintiff conferred and considered the possibility of settlement during the depositions of the various Indiana Pacer players, but such negotiations have since terminated due to an inability to agree on the value of the case.

Counsel for Defendant Anthony Johnson and counsel for Plaintiff most recently conferred and considered the possibility of settlement on September 26, 2006. Negotiations between Defendant Anthony Johnson and Plaintiff are ongoing and their counsel intend to engage in further discussions.

To date, counsel for Defendant Jermaine O'Neal and counsel for Plaintiff have not discussed the possibility of settlement.
